The Interior Journal. E. C. WALTON

HON. HARVEY HELM,

of Lincoln county, is a candidate for re-nomination for Congress from the Eighth district, subject to the action of the demo-eratic party.

WILLIAM CROMWELL, for many years chief clerk of the Kentucky Senate and Price will make the race for the demo-City Attorney of Frankfort, died suddenly Saturday morning at his residence in South Frankfort. He had an attack of acute indigestion Friday evening about 6 o'clock, but seemed to be entirely relieved of that in an hour or two. Saturday morning he appeared to be do-I w nicely and told the members of his family that he felt comfortable. Just before 9 o'clock, however, he had an attack that the physicians think was a paralytic stroke, and died in a few seconds. Just a minute befored the last attack he had told his cousin, Hugh Cromwell, that he felt very comfortable. He had a stroke of paralysis over a year ago, from which he had never entirely recovered, though the had improved enough to resume his law practice, and the physicians believed that a second stroke would prove fatal, Mr. Cromwell was an exceedingly clever man and very popular at home and wherever he was known. By Mr. Cromwell's death, Hon. J. M. Alverson, of this office, who is assistant clerk of the Senate, will call that body to order when it meets, Jan. 4.

NEVER before has so much Yuletide money gone across the Atlantic to cheer the people of other lands as was sent this year, according to the figures compiled since December 1 [by Postmaster E. M. Morgan. Outgoing steamers have carried money orders amounting to $7,524,963-an increase of $2,298,125 over the sum sent last year. Nearly $2,000,000 went to Great Britain alone. while Italy's people were remembered with $1,732,131 in gifts, large and small. In the number of money orders there was a gain of 140,518 over,1908.

LET's have a sane Christmas. It is tright to spend the happiest season of the whole year in drinking, carousing and riotous living. It is the time to make gifts and try to bring about happiness and if well spent the pleasure of the incoming year will be far greater. In giving, remember the poor and don't try to grease the fatted sow. The well to-do can buy what they wish; the poor need the gifts at your disposal.

The people of that county seem to have come to belief that they can not get along without booze and they vote for it right and left. Having never tried local option they do not know the advantage of it and perhaps should not be blamed for voting for red liquor.

. It is hard to compute the number of animals and birds killed by Roose-velt and his party just for the fun of seeing something die. The Smithsonian Institute has received 6,663 skins of birds and animals, which represent but a small part of those killed.

A PHILADELPHIA preacher draws great crowds to his dreary services selecting six of the prettiest young girls of the congregation as ushers. However, he doesn't fool the people but once, as the unishment proves much greater than the pleasure.
